

CODE OF CONDUCT THE COMPANY'S OBLIGATIONS TO STAKEHOLDERS

ACN 152 098 854

1. COMMITMENT TO THE CODE OF CONDUCT

Genex Power Limited (ACN 152 098 854) (Company) endeavours to be recognised as an organisation committed to the highest ethical standards in business. We aspire to be a role model in conducting business honestly and fairly. We are proud of the quality of our employees and of the professional reputation and market image built by their work.

This code of conduct (Code) reflects our high standards of professional conduct and ethics in dealing with all of our stakeholders and our commitment to complying with all applicable state, national and international laws.

The Company considers stakeholders as employees, shareholders, creditors, customers, suppliers, contractors, consultants, governmental and non-governmental organisations, the communities where the Company operates and other parties that have influence over or are influenced by the Company.

The Company is firmly committed to compliance with the Code. Any action contrary to the Code will be treated very seriously.

The Company will periodically review and update the Code.

2. RESPONSIBILITIES TO SHAREHOLDERS AND THE FINANCIAL COMMUNITY

In addition to this Code, the Company complies with all provisions of its Constitution, the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), the ASX Listing Rules and all other applicable rules and legislation.

2.1. Shareholders

We have a positive relationship with our shareholders. We always attempt to respond to their inquiries and requests as quickly as possible.

The Company is committed to delivering value for shareholders and exerts its best efforts to maximise shareholder benefits.

The Company treats all shareholders equally.

2.2. Disclosure

The Company values communication with its shareholders, other stakeholders and the public at large, and will fulfil its duty to make full, fair and timely disclosure of relevant information to shareholders and the ASX.

3. EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

3.1. Equal Opportunity

The Company is an equal-opportunity employer. This means that the Company does not discriminate on the basis of racial origin, gender, age, ethnicity, marital status, disability, religious or philosophical beliefs, sexual preference, or political affiliation. The Company considers allegations of harassment and unlawful discrimination as extremely serious and will take appropriate action.

3.2. Diversity

The Company promotes and supports a diverse workforce at all levels of the Company. It is our belief that creating a work environment that enables us to attract, retain, and fully engage diverse talents leads to enhanced innovation and creativity in our products and services.

3.3. Health

The Company promotes and supports a diverse workforce at all levels of the Company. It is our belief that creating a work environment that enables us to attract, retain, and fully engage diverse talents leads to enhanced innovation and creativity in our products and services.

The Company has developed a set of core occupational health standards. These standards are implemented through education and training and are regularly reviewed. The standards are in compliance with applicable health laws, regulations, and appropriate practices.

3.4. Safety

The Company ensures a safe and hazard-free workplace.

The Company adheres to comprehensive safety standards focusing on hazard identification and risk assessment. These standards are implemented through education and training and are regularly reviewed. The standards are in compliance with applicable safety laws, regulations and appropriate practices.

3.5. Training and potential

The Company believes in enabling employees to develop to the extent of their full capabilities. We improve our employee's skills and competencies by regular performance reviews and undertaking education, training and coaching. We recognise potential and offer professional development opportunities within the Company.

3.6. Use of Company funds and resources

Employees must not use Company funds, property, equipment or other resources for personal benefit.

Employees should use Company funds sensibly and effectively. Employees must report expenditures accurately. The Company will treat submission of a fraudulent expense report as serious misconduct.

3.7. Confidentiality

Employees may become aware of material non-public information about the Company or one of its clients or customers in the course of doing business for the Company. Information is considered material if an investor could use that information to make a decision to trade in the shares of the Company.

Information that is not publicly available concerning the activities, results or plans of the Company must only be used for authorised purposes.

3.8. Insider trading

Employees may become aware of material non-public information about the Company or one of its clients or customers in the course of doing business for the Company. Information is considered material if an investor could use that information to make a decision to trade in the shares of the Company.

Employees must not buy or sell the shares in the Company or its clients or customers if they have such information about that company and must not share that information with others.

3.9. Conflicts of interest

Employees of the Company are expected to act at all times in the Company's best interests and to exercise sound judgment unclouded by personal interests or divided loyalties.

Employees must avoid the appearance of, as well as actual, conflicts of interest in both in their performance of duties for the Company and in their outside activities.

3.10. Drug and alcohol use

Employees of the Company will not be under the influence of drugs or alcohol in any situation where they are identifiable as an employee of the Company or at anytime in the course of their employment or employment-related activities.

Smoking is not permitted in the workplace.

4. FAIR TRADING AND DEALING

The Company believes that the Company, the economy, and the public benefit of businesses compete vigorously. The Company, its employees, and representatives will treat customers, business allies and suppliers fairly and will not engage in anticompetitive practices that unlawfully restrict the free market economy. The Company is therefore firmly committed to upholding the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 and corresponding state legislation.

4.1. Bribes

The Company's objective is to compete in the marketplace on the basis of superior products, services and competitive prices.

No payment in any form may be made or received, directly or indirectly, to anyone for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business, or to obtain any other favourable action. A violation of this policy will subject the employee to disciplinary action as well as potential criminal prosecution.

4.2. Gifts

Employees must exercise extreme care when giving or receiving business-related gifts.

Employees should exercise particular caution in regard to any offers of value, including hospitality, entertainment and gifts when the Company is negotiating a contract and so may be in a position to influence, directly or indirectly the outcome of a decision. There must not be an impression of an improper connection between any gift and business opportunities.

The employee must consider the monetary value of the gift, local custom and legal requirements when determining whether a gift should be retained or returned.

Employees must not request gifts from any party with whom the Company conducts business. Employees must not exchange gifts with the Company's competitors as this may create an actual or perceived conflict of interest.

4.3. Agreements with competitors

Formal or informal agreements with competitors that seek to limit or restrict competition in some way are often illegal. Unlawful agreements include agreements that seek to fix or control prices, allocate products, markets or territories, or boycott certain customers or suppliers.

To ensure compliance with state and federal trade practices legislation, discussions with competitors regarding any of these potential agreements is a violation of Company policy and will subject the employee to disciplinary action as well as the potential for criminal prosecution.

5. RESPONSIBILITIES TO THE COMMUNITY

5.1. Environmental protection

The Company respects the environment and protects our natural resources. Wherever possible we prevent or otherwise minimise and mitigate harmful effects of the Company's operations on the environment. Compliance with all environmental laws and regulations is the foundation on which we build our environmental performance.

5.2. Human rights

We support human rights consistent with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the Company respects those rights in conducting the Company's operations.

At a minimum and where applicable, we comply with Australia's national and state laws and apply our own standards when they are more stringent. Where national/state laws and our standards are not consistent, we encourage the implementation of the highest standard.

We look for opportunities to support positive efforts to promote broader understanding of human rights values, especially where they assist the Company's local communities.

5.3. Support for the community

We have a strong commitment to the improvement of society as well as the communities we serve and in which we operate. We encourage the support of charitable, civic, educational, and cultural causes.

5.4. Political involvement

The Company does not directly or indirectly participate in party politics. The Company does not make payments to political parties or individual politicians in any country.

6. RESPONSIBILITIES TO THE INDIVIDUAL

6.1. Collecting information

Collecting information on our competitors from legitimate sources to evaluate the relative merits of their products, services, and marketing methods is proper and often necessary. The Company considers stealing information as a serious breach of the Code. In addition, seeking confidential information from a new employee who recently worked for a competitor, or an employee misrepresenting their identity in the hopes of obtaining confidential information from a competitor, is strictly prohibited.

7. INTERNATIONAL COMPLIANCE

Where the Company operates outside of Australia the Company will comply with all local and international laws. Employees are expected to know and follow the laws of the relevant market where the Company operates.

8. MONITORING COMPLIANCE WITH THE CODE

It is the responsibility of every employee of the Company to promote the Code.

The Company has established a system for reporting violations of any of the Company policies and the Code, as well as any suspected misconduct by any employee or representative of the Company. This may be done in writing to the Company Secretary of the Company.

The Company will not permit any form of retribution against any person, who, in good faith, reports known or suspected violations of the Code or any other Company policy.

9. REVIEW

This Code will be reviewed annually and revised by the Board as required.

Approved by the Board on 12 April 2023.

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "R Craven", is positioned above a horizontal dashed line.

Ralph Craven
Chair of the Board of Directors